

First National Bank building added to Waverly Historic Register, plaque installed

BY ANELIA K. DIMITROVA

The historic commercial building, located at 98 E. Bremer Ave., was added to the Waverly Historic Register in 2023. On Friday, Historic Preservation Commission Co-Chairs Kris Brunkhorst and Darius Robinson, along with commissioners Karen Lehmann and Michael Pinegar, posed for a photo to highlight the installation of a commemorative plaque telling the story of the building. The building now houses a store called Vintage Farmgirl.

Historic Preservation Commission Co-Chairs Kris Brunkhorst and Darius Robinson, along with commissioners Karen Lehmann and Michael Pinegar, are highlighting the installation of a commemorative plaque on the First National Bank building in downtown Waverly.

See BANK, A2

First National Bank building added to Waverly Historic Register, plaque installed

CONTINUED FROM A1

This historic commercial building, located at 98 E. Bremer Ave., was added to the Waverly Historic Register in 2023.

Sites receiving that award or the Waverly Historic Preservation Award can be viewed on the commission's website (<http://www.waverlyia.com/whpc>) where applications for future awards are also available.

This year's nominations are now open with 2024 awards to be presented at a National Preservation Month celebration on May 11 at Harlington Cemetery.

Contact any commissioner to learn more about the awards or the nomination process. Additional commission members not present for the photo are Mary Meyer, Bard Mackey, and Mary Yang. Vintage Farmgirl is located inside the historic building.