EARTH'S BOUNTY IN IOWA: THEN & NOW

The Waverly Public Library is thrilled to be one of only four libraries in Iowa selected to host Earth's Bounty in Iowa: Then and Now, a program on the agricultural heritage of Iowa, on Thursday, October 10 from 7:00 to 8:30 PM. The program will feature two guest speakers, a professor of history and a farmer storyteller, who will speak on the state's rich history of agriculture along with the modern challenges and triumphs of farming in Iowa. The event, developed and organized by the Iowa Center for the Book at the State Library of Iowa, is the result of a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities for a two-year program on the agricultural heritage of Iowa.

FRIENDS OF THE WAVERLY PUBLIC LIBRARY

If you are a parent or caregiver, consider joining us at the WPL on the first and third Tuesdays each month from 9:30-10:30 AM for our new Caretaker Chat Hour.

Talk with other parents and attend Toddler Storytime at 10:30, if you'd like!

Friends of the Waverly Public Library have been kind enough to sponsor this program, providing free coffee and donut holes. If you'd like to be a part of this wonderful organization, you can join the Friends for $5 for students or seniors, $10 for individuals, or $20 for a family.
