Who "done it?" The Mysteries & Munchies Book Club "done it". For more than 17 years, the members have been gathering at the Waverly Public Library once-a-month on a Sunday afternoon to discuss the work of a specific mystery writer. With an occasional repeat, 229 authors have been visited since the group first met in October 2001. The "munchies" part of the title refers to the snacks provided by discussion leader Mary Schmidt who cleverly chooses food that is themed to the particular geographic location of the current author. M&M takes the summer off, but will resume their 2018 schedule on Sunday, September 9, 2:30-3:30pm at the Waverly Public Library. All mystery lovers are welcome. Or, if you would just like to follow what the group is reading, send your email address to Hank Bagelmann, hbagelmann@outlook.com. He will put you on the mailing list for the M&M newsletter.
