Tend a Garden, Mend a Garden

The Library is rebuilding its water feature in the butterfly garden! Over the past seventeen years of freezing and thawing through Iowa winters, the plumbing underneath the water feature has developed several leaks and has now reached the end of its life. Since last summer the Library's Building & Grounds Committee has been working on a plan for a new water feature. Similar to the current layout, three separate streams will feed into a large central pond, recycling the water throughout the system. Construction will begin in late summer into early fall.

We are now inviting the public to be a part of this rebuilding! Please consider giving a gift of any size. There will be donation boxes at the library clearly marked for the garden's water feature project. We appreciate the willingness of the community to help us make this garden such a special place for everyone to enjoy.

If you're looking for nonfiction DVDs and documentaries you will find them in a new location. They are all

Be sure to sign up for the 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten program. This project encourages parents to read aloud at least 1000 books with their children before they enter school. Children obtain new logs and congratulatory stickers each time they finish a 100-level. They place the sticker on a part of a giant Rainbow Reading Garden in the children section of the library to show the community how much reading is being done. At the milestones of completing 100 books they receive a library bag, and at completion of 500 books they receive two finger puppets. The culminating prize is a book and certificate the child can keep. Sign up at the Children's Desk!

Dantastic! Reading Road Trip June 30th @ 10:00am & 11:00am

Dan Wardell is producer and host of the IPTV Kid's Clubhouse at Iowa Public Television. His adventures take him to school and libraries across the state, teaching kids to turn off their TVs, to go outside and play, to use their imaginations, and most importantly, to read a good book.
